NOMINATE ABLE MEN.

This is good advice to all and is from the Austin Reville:

As the time approaches for the convention to meet to nominate the county legislative ticket, it would be good for the leading citizens of the county to consult with one another, and advise among themselves as to who would be the best men to place in nomination for the different offices of the county, and after you have decided and nominated a good ticket be sure and be on hand the day of election and work for the ticket that the good men may be elected to fill the offices, by so doing all will be satisfied, for if both parties put up their best men, then certainly all will end well, and by all means be sure and put up a good legislative ticket. Put up men that have some legislative ability, and property interests at stake, not a person to go to the Senate and be like a wart on the nose, neither ornamental nor useful, but a person that has had considerable experience in the halls of the Legislature, and one that commands some respect, and the same should be the case in choosing members of the Assembly. Nominate men of ability and not men that go there merely to draw their pension. Elect good men to the Legislature and Lander county will be well cared for.

A GOOD TICKET.

The Genoa Courier says:

General anti-faction is expressed in the Republican ranks with the ticket nominated by the Republican State Convention. The re-nomination of Mr. Burton for Congressman gives the ticket great strength in this county. Mr. Colcord, the nominee for Governor, is almost a stranger in this section, but those of our citizens who have had the pleasure of his personal acquaintance speak of him in the highest terms. The people here express themselves highly pleased to know that Judge Bishop will continue to reside in our District Court. J. D. Torreyson has constantly grown in popular favor during his past office of the legal profession in our courts. Mr. S. A. Kinsey did not go before the Convention. Mr. O. H. Grey, of White Pine, receiving the nomination by acclamation. Douglas county has two honorary positions on the ticket. The nomination of J. W. Hines for University Regent is a good one. His broad range of knowledge eminently fits him for the position. The nomination of H. Sprungmeyer, for Reclamation Commissioner, is a proper recognition of the energy and zeal he has shown in forwarding surveys for water storage and irrigation schemes.

The natives on Copper Island who are hired by the Russian Government to keep off seal purchasers have gained a hard reputation by their attacks on marines in distress. Several years ago they fired upon and killed a number of Japanese and American seamen who landed on the island to get fresh water, and now comes the report from some of the men lost from the schooner C. G. White that one sailor was killed and two were badly wounded while they were skirting the island in a small boat. The Russian Government should be given to understand that the practice of shooting at suspicious persons will not be tolerated. If these men had been English or German a war vessel would demand reparation or would shell these Aleuts off the island.

The national crop report shows that in the leading wheat and corn-producing sections east of the Rocky mountains the average yield will be comparatively light. Drought is chiefly responsible. The European crops are also reported short, and the Indian prospect is only moderate. There is a suspicion that many crop shortages are found on the floors of stock exchanges that do not exist on the farms, but from what can be learned of the agricultural situation in connection with the advance of silver, California farmers may reasonably expect good prices for their produce.

The remarkably slow time made by the Charleston on her recent trip from the Sandwich Islands to Seattle, which has excited so much discussion, was at first attributed to baraboles and other marine formations. The result of a diver's investigation, however, showed that most of the formation was the work of coral, which adhered to the hull of the new cruiser when at anchor over a reef at Honolulu, great hunks of coral and submarine matter having formed on her steel plates as large as an ordinary table.

The anti-cigarette law of New York, so full of good intentions, is in danger of being laughed off the statute books. Though the number of youths addicted to the cigarette is appalling to contemplate, the so-called of a burly, puffing policeman scurrying hopelessly in the wake of the defiant, nimble young sinners, who generally manage to get away, is having a demoralizing effect on "the finest," who are disinclined to appear in such a ludicrous role.

The Tariff bill, when engrossed, will be signed and sent to the House and will be referred to the Ways and Means Committee. Probably it will be referred back on Monday or Tuesday. It is understood that the committee will recommend concurrence in all verbal amendments which do not change rates, and on all others non-concurrence, and a conference will be recommended.

"I don't allow any grass to grow under my feet," said a lively Chicago girl. "What chance is there for any lawn then?" asked a witty man from St. Louis.

There is nothing the matter with Wyoming. She is all right. The Republican majority is 1,500.

BLAINE AND MCKINLEY.

Depew Tells What People Think of Them in Other Lands.

New York, September 11th.—The first full meeting of the Union League Club was held to-night, with Chauncey M. Depew in the chair. General Sherman was on the platform. Depew made a speech. He thanked the club for its cordial welcome upon his return from abroad, and said: "Of all the great Americans known on the other side, not even excepting General Grant, none are so well known as James G. Blaine and William McKinley. They seem to regard McKinley as a man who has been studying up economic subjects, and who has invented a new scheme by which to close up the factories of Europe and starve the people into submission to the American Government. They pined me with questions as to McKinley, and tried to get an expression as to the nature of the man and what he is going to do with all the people abroad. I replied that my notion of McKinley was that possibly he had an idea of inducing them to emigrate with all their factories and workmen to the great American country and thus help give a greater consuming power for agricultural products. Inasmuch as some of the great governments abroad had taken a notion that they did not want to be on familiar terms with the American hog, the best they could do was to increase the consuming capacity of the American hog at home."

MAY LEAVE NEW YORK.

Cleveland Looking Toward Boston as His Future Home.

Boston, September 11.—The Democratic generally and the Mugwumps in particular are in a flutter over rumors that ex-President Cleveland has decided to abandon New York as a place of residence and seek a home in Massachusetts. Efforts to get something definite from Cleveland himself have proved unavailing, but those who are near him intimate that with the rank and file of the party in New York more or less dominated by Hill he would have much better prospects in 1892 if the plan of campaign were mapped out among trusted friends.

In Massachusetts the Democratic party is with him solidly. The Democratic leaders are hopeful of his coming, although Mr. Collins says he should think Cleveland would rather meet Hill on his own ground and achieve the prestige such a victory would give him.

If he comes Mr. Cleveland will scarcely live in this city, but rather in some convenient suburb. Several excellent opportunities for a business partnership are open to him here.

George Elliott on Marriage.

Marian Evans, the gifted novelist, who wrote under the name of George Eliot, when but 19 years of age wrote, "For my part when I hear of the marrying and the giving in marriage that is constantly being transacted, I can only sigh for those who are multiplying earthly ties, which, though powerful enough to detach their hearts from heaven, are so brittle as to be liable to be snipped asunder at every breeze." After she married Mr. J. W. Cross in her mature years she wrote: "I shall be a better, more loving creature than I could have been in solitude. To be constantly grateful for the gift of a peaceful love is the best illumination of one's mind to all the possible good there may be in store for man on this troublous planet."

The Austin Reville says:

The Republican Convention at Virginia City, was probably the most harmonious gathering of the kind ever assembled in the State. Every county was represented by full delegates. Proxies were a thing unknown. The delegates, each and every one of them, seeing the necessity of nominating a strong ticket, lost no time in picking from the different candidates and placing in nomination the strongest men, and beyond a doubt it is one of the strongest if not the very strongest ticket ever given to the people of Nevada. It is a ticket that will sweep everything before it in November and herald one more victory for the grand old party of Nevada.

Prayer in the Indiana Democratic Convention.

"Our Father, who art in Heaven, we confess that Thou art the ruler of the universe, and that Thou dost hold our destinies as well as the destinies of nations in Thine own hands. One of the greatest political parties of the State and nation has assembled here to select men to be voted for at the coming election, and believing that a Christian land, such as ours, should have honest, God-fearing, liberty-loving men to represent it in the various departments, we ask Thee to inspire this convention to give us such men. Believing, also that the men nominated here today will be elected, we ask Thee to enable us to make the wisest selection. Help the presiding officer in his work. Help the defeated brethren to take their defeat philosophically, and may peace and harmony prevail and brotherly love continue in the party that has withstood the storms of a hundred years and is today the party of the people. Smile graciously upon our beloved State and bless the Governor and all the State officers. Guide us by Thy unswerving counsel in all the walks of life and may victory be ours in November. Amen."

The Sacramento Bee says:

Only four States in the Union pay their Governors a larger salary than does Nevada. The population of that State is small, but her people are wonderfully willing.

The Republican plurality in Maine is 18,721.

CURIOSITIES OF THE NEWS.

A legless burglar has been caught in Pittsburg.

A 4-pound stone was found in the intestines of a horse at Allentown, Penn.

A pair of shoes for a Georgia negro weighed four pounds and five ounces. They were numbered 15.

A boy in Peekskill, N. Y., is said to have hooked in succession two eels whose combined length was seventeen feet.

A Chester, Penn., lady dresses her children in their bathing suits and turns the hose on them on her front lawn.

An unfortunate woman at Lancaster, Penn., is so hideously formed that persons meeting her after dark run away in fright.

It is claimed that Talara county, Cal., will lose a round $500,000 this year for want of ships to carry its grain to Liverpool.

An owl, shot near Jackson, Ga., a few days ago, measured five and a half feet from tip to tip of the wings, and had a small steel trap on one of its feet.

An enormous sunfish has been caught near the Isle of Skye. It was eight feet ten inches long, eight feet nine inches in circumference and weighed over one thousand pounds.

J. Price, of Savannah, Ga., has a curiosity in the shape of a young mocking bird entirely white. Price purchased the bird from a negro trapper.

An electric ball dropped into Henry Ellwell's tomato patch in Lower Creek, Salem county, N. J., during a recent thunderstorm and exploded, killing fifty tomato plants.

The birth of a baby without a tongue is reported from Martinsville, Ind., as occurring eight miles south of that city. Mrs. John Fulford being the mother.

The full name of a woman who died in Kansas City recently, was Joyce Jane Permelia Ann Sarah Elizabeth Doug as Carr Gentry Ballard. She has left a great name as a legacy to posterity. She had as many names as a royal princess.

A Mexican was running a mowing machine in a field of alfalfa near Las Cruces, N. M., when he uncovered a colony of skeans. A number were killed by the mower, and the Mexican called for help to assist in exterminating the colony. The fight was kept up with pitchforks and clubs until fifty-two were slaughtered.

On the 7th of last month workmen engaged in sinking an artesian well in Sand Valley, near Niria, N. M., struck an open seam, from which a cold stream of air rushed with force enough to remove a 13 pound rock laid over the opening. The air was charged with millions of small yellow bugs, each having but two legs, no wings, and a small red circle on his back. They lived but a few seconds after striking the warm outside air. Local scientists are puzzling over the question: How did they get so far down into the earth?

Miss Saunders, twenty-one years of age, resides in Cincinnati. When she was a little girl of seven she swallowed a piece of window-glass about half an inch long. It occasioned her no annoyance until a few days ago, when her right foot gave her considerable pain at the instep. A physician was called and at once decided that there was a foreign body of some sort in one of the large veins. Making an incision he picked out the identical piece of glass swallowed when Miss Saunders was a girl.

During a thunder-storm in a Colorado lumber camp a Mexican was struck on the head by lightning, which ran down one side of his face, over the shoulder, transversely across the breast, down around one leg and out through the shoe-top. His face was badly burned, and the course of the current over him was marked by a red brand. His clothes were torn from him, and the sole of the shoe completely torn off. He lay apparently dead, and was left at the place until the storm was over. After lying in the rain for two hours he was resuscitated, and is now as well as ever, except for the burn.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their was lost longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GORR, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

COLONIAL DAMES OF AMERICA.

A Woman's Club to Promote Patriotism and Conserve Aristocracy.

The bold statement that another woman's society is about to be organized is not particularly thrilling. As in these days the queens of creation so generally become queens of clubs, by reason of their membership in some association formed to promote social, religious, literary, industrial or artistic aims, and having thereby vindicated more or less their claim to be considered clubbable creatures, no particular attention is paid to their movements in this direction.

But when to the announcement that a new club is about to be created there is coupled the intelligence that only women will be eligible whose ancestry is established by heredity—not acquired matrimonially or by purchase, like that of the colonel in "The Pirates"—interest is at once quickened, and it becomes fairly rampant when the whole scheme is unfolded and it appears that every member will have to make her calling and election sure by proving her direct descent from forefathers who emigrated to America prior to the year 1770, and who made their mark upon the time to the extent at least of being "considered worthy of esteem and renown."

It is intended that the proposed society shall be among women what the Order of the Cincinnati and the Sons of the Revolution are among men, and it will to a certain extent embody the principles of these societies. The aim of the organization will be "to commemorate the success of our glorious republic, to promote social intercourse and fellowship among its members now and in the future, to inspire a genuine love of country in every heart within its range of influence, to labor to diffuse healthful and intelligent information relating to whatever concerns the past and tends to create popular interest in the men and events instrumental in the providing for us our present institutions."

It will also be an obligation to collect and preserve manuscripts, traditions, relics and mementoes of the old times when the colonies were young and the aforesaid ancestors lived and moved and had their being. It will be a sacred duty devolving upon the members to teach the younger generations as they arise to hold in loving remembrance the "brave days of old," and to honor the heroic men whose ability, valor, sufferings and achievements are beyond praise, and should excite the deepest reverence and the liveliest patriotism, "and to promote social intercourse and fellowship among its members."

This is the substance of a printed letter setting forth the scheme of the new society which is being quietly circulated among those who are undoubtedly and those who are presumably eligible to stand among the elect who propose to call themselves "The Colonial Dames of America."

The names of the originators of this patriotic and aristocratic corporation are not disclosed, but the blank in the "letter" which invites the woman to whom it is submitted to kindly communicate her willingness to be considered as a candidate by the committee of judges is variously filled out by several ladies whose family patronymic figures prominently in the annals of old, very old New York.—New York World.

Mrs. Curtis' Orchestra.

Mrs. John G. Curtis, of this city, is the founder of one of the most remarkable orchestras in existence. It is composed of men, women and children of musical ability, gathered from poor families, who pay a very small fee for the instruction Mrs. Curtis provides. Theodore John, formerly conductor of the orchestra of Freiburg, Germany, has had charge of the amateurs for the last three years, and under his excellent instruction and the inspiration of the fair patroness several of the pupils have been able to fill positions in professional orchestras. Mrs. Curtis has used her drawing room and hall in East Thirty-fifth street for practice, and here too her proteges have played to fashionable companies for charity.—New York World.

A daughter of Gen. Lyon, the Connecticut hero who served in the Mexican and civil wars, and who left all his property to the government to assist in carrying on the latter war, has been found serving as a cook in a graders' camp near Denver, Colo., where her husband, an invalid, was a workman. It is stated, also, that the wife of Lincoln's first private secretary, Frank Milton, is a cook on the steamer St. Croix, on a western river.

Superintendent Porter discovered in his mail bag on Thursday a letter from Indiana reading thus: "Finding a baby without a name that was born just in time to have its nose counted, and the family undecided as to a name, the matter was finally left to me, whereupon I christened him Porter F. Crabb, the first after you and the second for myself."

When decanters and carafes become so discolored inside that shot or fine coals will not cleanse them, fill the bottle with finely chopped potato skins, cork tightly and let the bottle stand for three days, when the skins will ferment. Turn out and rinse. The bottle will be as bright and clean as when new.

Joseph Van Nostrand, aged 10 years, of Hookoken, N. J., carried a parcel for a man on board the steamship Werma several days ago. The vessel left the wharf before he was aware of it and he has been carried across the ocean. A cable message has been sent to have him returned.

Miss Mitchell, of Kingston, a graduate of Queen's university, who received a license to practice medicine a couple of months ago, is the first woman in Canada to write M. D. after her name.

Rich Mineral Strike.

Wednesday night, in the famous Idaho mine, at Grass Valley, Cal., a new ledge of free milling ore was struck below the 1700-foot level. The rock will mill from $80 to $100 a ton.

The find of Wednesday night is not a similar one to the deep find of a few months ago which so excited mining circles. This strike was made in sinking the main shaft.

The Fire Escape and the Vine.

"Very foolish to cling to me. Suppose an accident were to happen, where would you be? Torn, trampled, crushed under hurrying feet. Look at those sunflowers. They stand on their own stems, they do. Catch them sticking their saucy yellow heads between my bars; not much! I like independence, I do."

Thus spake the fire escape.

"How hard hearted you are!" murmured the vine, singing a tendril lovingly above the upper railing.

"I was born so," replied the fire escape, grimly.

"And how cold!" continued the vine.

"My nature," growled the fire escape.

"But I love you," whispered the vine, "because you are so strong and so tall and such a help to me! When I was a little thing, and a stranger in this street, I looked up and saw you, great and dark, reaching aloft to the sky. Ah! you looked so terrible, and if you will pardon me, so ugly, that I was frightened at first, but then it was pleasant and restful to lean against your mighty frame. I quite gave myself up to it, and grew and grew, and budded and blossomed, till, as you know, the passers-by stop in amazement, saying, 'How beautiful that fire escape looks!'"

"Still ours is not a suitable union," persisted the fire escape. "I have a great mission to perform; I am here to save human life. You should have cast your lot in with some nice country cottage—not a coarse old tenement like me."

"Love goeth whither it is sent," sighed the vine meekly, and clung closer.

That night a woman with a babe at her breast dropped a lighted lamp.

Flames darted here, there, everywhere, hungrily, glowing. People madly flung their poor possessions from the windows.

Engines rattled through the streets. Brave men climbed the sturdy fire escape, and carried children and women down its iron sides. Splendid streams of water played upon the blazing building.

Morning dawned, pale and blue. The fire, pretty little tall and dark, but the poor, fretful vine lay dead at its feet, a victim of misplaced affection.—Pearl Eytting in Dramatic News.

French Ideas of Rewarding Merit.

I should like to answer a question which I am constantly being asked.

"How is it that the French, who are so admirers of pluck, adventure, the advancement of science, etc., not only do not honor Stanley, but even give him the cold shoulder?" Far be it from me to reply that the French do not recognize the great feats of this great explorer, but they are a sentimental people, and when they see a man of this kind make, financially, a good thing out of his exploits they consider that he has his reward, and they cannot be made to see where the bands of music and hat waving come in. If Cincinnatus had been a Frenchman he would be a saint in the eyes of the French; but a Walseley in enjoyment of gold and title would never be considered to need niche or pedestal in addition.

If M. Pasteur had charged a guinea every time he inoculated a patient nobody would have objected; nay, it would have been thought quite right and natural; but he would not have been regarded as entitled to hero worship. It is because M. Pasteur is known never to have taken a cent for himself from his patients that he is idolized by his countrymen. They admire in him a benefactor of the human race, and it flatters their pride to claim him as a product of French soil. Call this sentimentality if you will, I am neither commending nor condemning it, but stating the plain fact.—Max O'Reil in Washington Star.

The Value of a Silver Dollar.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, was twitted by Senator McPherson, of New Jersey, in the course of his silver speech with the fact that the silver dollars were only worth seventy-two cents. Of course it "reminded him of a little story."

"I recollect," said he, "talking on this subject once with some senators in the cloak room. During the conversation one of the senate pages brought me a telegram, on which he said the telegraph messenger had told him there were fifty cents due. I gave the page a silver dollar and said to him:

"I have been informed by some very respectable and intellectual gentlemen in here, some of them candidates for the presidency even, that this dollar is worth only seventy-two cents. I do not want to cheat a little boy. Take this out, and if the boy thinks it is worth only seventy-five cents he can send me back twenty-five cents, and if he thinks it is worth a dollar he can send me back fifty cents. I will leave it to him."

"The page brought back fifty cents and said the telegraph boy told him he did not know what those old 'duffers' in there might say, but it was as good a dollar as he wanted and was very hard to get."—Cor. New York Tribune.

Burglars Caught by Electricity.

Electric burglar catching has received an impetus in Paris at the hands of an enterprising wine merchant in the Rue Secretan, who has just landed his fifth man in the following way: There is no conclave for his premises, and he has had his store connected with the room occupied by his waiters by means of an electric wire. When the burglar enters the bell in the waiters' room rings and the intruder is quietly nabbed. The wine merchant's experiment has been so successful that several other traders in the vicinity have adopted his modus operandi, and are now yearning for a real live "midnight marauder" to come their way.—Exchange.

Velocity of the Fly.

A physiologist in France has been observing the work of flies in flying, and somehow has arrived at the conclusion that the wings of a fly make about 830 beats per second, and that such a fly can travel at the rate of a kilometer per minute. This is equal to the velocity of an express train. Assuming this to be so, then a fly could compass the earth's circumference in twenty-eight days.—Exchange.

MOUNTAIN WELLS.

Hot and Cold Artesian Water in Sierra Valley—Their Value for Farmers.

(Occasional Correspondence of the S. F. Bulletin.)

BECKWITH, PLUMAS Co., Sept. 8, 1890.

Although mention has frequently been made in the Bulletin of the artesian wells of Sierra valley, their extreme importance to this section of the country demands more than a passing notice. This first artesian well-bearing machine, owned by a company of sixteen of our farmers, was brought to this valley something over five years ago.

Work began immediately, and the result was watched with great interest, as even on the best watered farms in the valley, where fine crops of hay are produced, there was frequently serious inconvenience for proper water privileges for stock and herds.

Experiments were attended with such satisfactory results that five well-boring plants were in the course of some months in the valley, some owned by private individuals, others by companies. The failures to obtain water have been comparatively few. Several hundred wells have been bored in different sections of the valley, mostly in that part lying in Plumas county, although several newspapers of the State have erroneously located the artesian water belt in Sierra county.

That part of the valley in which are most of the wells, is less favored in natural water facilities than the upper part lying in Sierra county. The flow of water from these wells varies greatly, from small streams to others of 300 gallons a minute. The advantages of these wells can hardly be estimated. In the lowest part of the valley much of the meadow land is entirely covered with water during the winter and early spring. After the water subsides an abundant crop of hay is cut and after the hay is secured these large meadows furnish fine pasture for dairy and beef stock, provided water can be obtained for them. But here is no available water source for these vast stubble fields aside from surface wells, except as artesian water can be procured, it was not supposed at first that the artesian wells would be of value for irrigating purposes; but some of the wells are so porous that a single large well insures a good crop of grain on a 50-acre piece of land, the escape producing a heavy growth of a considerable distance from where any efforts have been made at irrigation.

The wells have proved of great value in enabling farmers to have fine vegetable gardens instead of having to purchase the wilted products shipped from distant points. Some of these artesian wells of our valley are so hot as to be very useful for household and dairy purposes, a constant supply of hot water being thus provided without the cook-stove being called into requisition. These hot wells, as a subject for interesting observation, are only surpassed by their utility. The water after flowing a few rods from them becomes cool enough for irrigating purposes.

The different depths at which artesian water is found is a subject which might well be of interest to scientists. It has been found in some cases within 200 or 300 feet of the surface, while in other cases the streams have come from a depth of over 1,000 feet. Last week the deepest well in the valley was completed, being 1,132 feet deep with a good flow of water. This great difference in the depth of artesian water is doubtless due to the rock formation below the surface. The State of Nevada some time since offered a reward of $1,000 for the first successful well within her limits. This was successfully won within the year by a machine owned by farmers of Sierra Valley. M. P. A.

Stock Cattle.

Fifteen hundred head of cattle, belonging to R. T. Evans, are now at Mill City. This is the first installment of the 3,000 head, which are being driven from California to stock Mr. Evans' Little Humboldt ranch.

Hauling Ore.

The Silver State says teams are now engaged in hauling ore from the Winnemucca mine to the reduction works, preparatory to starting the mill again in the near future.

RULES OF THE TRACK.

Entrance to all trotting and running races to close with the Secretary at 9 o'clock P. M., on Wednesday, August 20, 1890.All entries to be made in writing, to give sex, color and name of horse, and name and residence of owner, and in running races color to be worn by rider, and any other particulars that will enable the audience to distinguish the horse in the race.Write "Entries to races" on outside of envelope and seal.Entrance fee, 10 per cent of purse—to accompany entry.In all races five or more to enter and three or more to start.National Association Rules to govern trotting, but the Board reserves the right to give hosts or any two classes alternately, if necessary to finish any day's racing, or to trot a special race between the hosts, or change the order of races advertised for any day.Unless otherwise ordered by the Board no horse is qualified to be entered in any District race that has not been owned or kept in the District six (6) months prior to the day of the race, and any entry by any person of any disqualified horse shall be held liable for the entrance fee contracted, without right to compete for purse, and shall be held liable to penalties prescribed by the National Association and Rules of the State Agricultural Society, and expulsion from the Association.If, in the opinion of the Judges, any race can not be completed on the closing day of the Fair, it may be continued or declared off at the option of the Judges.In all races noted above, five or more paid up entries required to fill and three or more horses to start, but the Board reserves the right to hold entries and start a race with a less number and deduct proportionate amount of the purse.When less than the required number of starters appear they may contest for the entrance money, to be divided as follows: 6-5, to the first, and 3-5 to the second.Rules of the State Agricultural Society to govern running races except where conditions named are specified.Any person not intending to start his horse must notify the Secretary in writing on or before 6 o'clock the evening previous to the day of the race, and entries in races can only be drawn by consent of the Judges.For a walkover in any race a horse shall only be entitled to his own entrance fee and one-half of the entrance received from other entries for said purse and a horse winning a race entitled to first money only, except when distancing the field, then entitled to first and third money only. A horse winning but one money under any other conditions shall be entitled to first money only.The attention of all parties interested in particularly called to the rules of the National Trotting Association, under provisions of which, except as otherwise specified, all matters pertaining to the trotting races will be conducted.Races begin each day at 1 o'clock P. M., sharp.

INSURANCE.

MANHATTAN

Insurance Company.

Assets, $12,000,000.

The history of the past has proven beyond a question that an endowment policy in a life insurance company is a much

BETTER INVESTMENT

Than a savings bank; FIRST, because it is very much safer—as the law of the State of New York requires every life insurance company to keep a

Reserve in First-Class Securities

Equal to its liabilities, dollar for dollar; SECOND, in case of death while making these small deposits, the life insurance company will pay, just when most needed by the family, the

Full Amount

Of the sum insured, amounting to 10, 20, or even 30 times as much as has been deposited; or on the

Return Premium

Plan of the MANHATTAN, they would do even more than this, for they would at death pay the face of the policy and in addition all the deposits (premiums) paid, while the savings bank would only return the amounts actually deposited with interest.Who would not purchase a valuable piece of property—a farm for example—worth $10,000, if he could have twenty years to pay for it, in small sums of $300 per annum with interest on deferred payments and without any tax on it? The $300 per year being only 3 per cent of the $10,000—a sum not much greater than that paid annually for taxes on property in hand, of the same cost, and especially if he could have the further conditions specially stated in the contract, 1st, that if he dies while making these payments—even after one only has been made—

No Further Payments Shall be Required

And the full title in fee simple to the entire farm shall at once be given to his family; and 2d, that if at any time after the three years during the twenty years he shall be unable to continue the payments and from sickness or any misfortune, that then he could discontinue any further payments and have in fee simple such portions of the farm as he has paid for; thus, if one-fourth of the payments had been made, he would own one separate fourth of the farm, etc., and at the same time the farm be entirely free from all claims of creditors, under all circumstances, not even to be reached by writ of execution or attachment issued by any court, while if living to the end of the twenty years and the annual payments have been made, the

Entire Property in Fee Simple

is secured.

Now the MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY offers all this and more, for instead of offering LAND on these terms, which is often eaten up by legal expenses and fees in case of the death of the purchaser, or swallowed up by a mortgage given to secure deferred payments, thus losing the whole amount paid in and leaving the family destitute, or dependent, it offers a

Specific Bond Secured by Millions ## of First-Class Securities.

Agreeing to pay MONEY on the same terms and conditions as above—the cost per year varying at different ages, but otherwise substantially the same terms as above stated, while the sum to be paid at the end of twenty years will be increased by dividends and compounded interest for the full term, thus making the investment a very PROFITABLE and ADVANTAGEOUS one.Inquiries concerning the bonds of this company will receive prompt reply if addressed to

PLATFORM AND RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Republican State Convention held at Virginia City, Nevada, September 4, 1890:The record of the Republican party is its best platform.No political party in human history has taken such advanced positions for the equality of races, none has so weeded the administration of authority to the needs of business, none has so managed the affairs of a State as to encourage the development of honest financial methods, its unswerving system, and its devotion to popular education have made for it the greatest record of any political organization this or any other party ever had.The names of its heroes are legion, and the deeds of Fremont, Lincoln, Grant and Garfield will shine like electric lights on the pages of history.The Republican party, in convention assembled, heartily indorses the acts of the Fifty-first Congress, which has made greater advances in correct and needed legislation than any since the war.The Democratic party for the purpose of defeating legislation and blocking the wheels of government, has been done away with by the genius of Reed, McKinley and their associates, and the offenders taught that Congressmen are paid by the people for making good laws and not bad politics.It had, by a strictly party vote, placed the silver question with less naturally to free citizens and disarm all opposition among financiers.

It has taken up the work of a readjustment of the tariff in a patriotic and business like way, such as will protect the interests of labor and at the same time encourage capital to enterprises that will furnish it with employment for its surplus New States which were denied their rights before have been admitted to the Union, and the grip of Tammam Hall upon the Presidency broken.Trenchard's grand and noble Olden's Administration have been broken up and made to obey the laws of honest commerce.Efforts are being made to prevent or punish frauds and intrusions in elections.A navy has been provided for and suitable pensions granted to prevent suffering among the sick and wounded heroes of the war.Provision is being made for the reclamation of the arid regions, where the Republican policy of free homes and free schools can be extended.Unearred land grants are being restored to the public domain and the land thrown open to settlement, and in all things the pledges of the National platform are being amply redeemed.We indorse the Administration of President Harrison and commend his conservative course as striking in contrast with his predecessor in office.During the former Administration silver and wheat touched the lowest price ever known, and farmers burned their corn for fuel. Trusts were stimulated, finances disarranged, strikes prevailed, the mail service was demoralized and business found itself oppressed instead of being encouraged by the action of the Government, whose whole business should be to benefit the country.To-day silver, wheat and all the products of labor are rapidly rising, and while the Democratic officials may perhaps be innocent of intentionally destroying our property they are culpable for the destruction of blunders as they would be for crimes.Under the present Administration and contact labor are kept out of the country, American laborers and mechanics protected, agriculture is encouraged by a department intelligently conducted for its benefit, and the land is administered in a wise, judicious and patriotic manner. In presenting its ticket to the voters of Nevada, the Republican party pledges its nominees to retrenchment wherever it is possible in our administration.We pledge our nominees to a system of State improvements which shall save the water now running to waste and give means to secure its use in the irrigation of fertile lands now lying idle.We indorse the measure introduced by Senator Stewart proposing to cede the lands within our State to the State for the purpose of selling to improve our water storage and irrigation systems, and we appeal to Congress and the President to grant this much needed aid.We indorse the action of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, and commend their efforts to establish, on a better basis, the use of silver as money, and reaffirm our uncompromising demand for the redemption of our National currency, and their equal status in our National currency.We indorse the practice of letting mail contracts in this State to our residents, thereby who seek and obtain such contracts only for the purpose of subverting the same has resulted in an information and inspired mail service.Resolved, that our delegation in Congress be requested to procure, if possible, the enactment of a law to prevent such abuses in the future.We are in favor of the improvement of the wages of American labor by restricting immigration from foreign countries, a thorough revision of our naturalization and land laws, the construction of naval and coast defenses, the fostering of free schools and popular education, the enforcement of a free ballot and a fair count, cherishing the defenders of our country, the protection of every citizen and home and abroad, the fostering of a policy that will extend our commerce, the settling of all foreign complications by arbitration, and liberal appropriations by Congress for the construction of water reservoirs and a system of irrigation.Resolved, That we are in favor of the Australian system of ballot.Resolved, That as the coming election the question as to whether or not a Constitutional Convention will be held is to be submitted to the people, that we earnestly invite a calm and thorough discussion of the question during the campaign.Resolved, That it is the policy of the Republican party of Nevada to secure all safe and possible retrenchments in public affairs, and especially to oppose the payment of salaries upon a basis of services performed, decreasing the per diem and mileage and shortening the session and lessening the number of members of the Legislature, in the reduction of taxation and in consolidating county offices and diminishing county expenses, and to this end we pledge the abilities of the convention and earnestly ask that the nominees of the several county conventions be likewise obligated.
